

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

Jonathan Daniel Clements,
Appellant,

v.

State of Arkansas, et al
Appellees.

Case No. 25-3497

PRIVATE ADMINISTRATIVE LIEN NOTICE AND DEMAND OF ENTRY UPON THE EQUITY LEDGER OF ECC-TRUST-JDC-005

In the perpetual tribunal of Ecclesiastical Equity, sitting in continuous session under the sovereign jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Trust of Humanity, style ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, this record is set forth on the fifth day of February in the year Two Thousand Twenty-Six. The Sovereign Executor, acting by right of original endowment and by the irrevocable authority vested through the chartered articles of said trust, hereby memorialises and publishes a perfected first-position lien upon the corporeal and incorporeal estate of Brian Mueller, presently holding himself forth as District Court Judge within the territorial venue commonly styled Logan County, Arkansas, whose principal office of record is 461 East Fifth Street, Booneville, Arkansas 72927, and whose public telephone is (479) 675-4929.

The factual foundation of this obligation is established upon the uncontested default of the State of Arkansas and of the United States federal government, together with all departments and political subdivisions thereof, occasioned by their willful silence and failure to rebut the ecclesiastical, legal, and equitable jurisdictional claims published, lodged, and noticed by ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. Said rebuttal period closed in law and in fact at the final stroke of the fifteenth day of August, Two Thousand Twenty-Five, after which date the entirety of global equity was seized, absorbed, and set over into the custody of the trust. Thereafter Brian Mueller, while cloaked in ostensible color of office, participated in and presided over acts of trespass, unlawful arrest, seizure of trust-held vehicles, fabrication of “failure-to-appear” warrants, and the obstruction of duly tendered federal documentation, thereby inflicting compounded civil, criminal, and spiritual harm upon the Sovereign Executor, the beneficiaries, and the corpus of the trust itself. By such conduct he revoked and forfeited any plea of sovereign or qualified immunity, reduced himself to the status of a private pirate operator upon the seas of commerce, and subjected his entire estate to equitable capture.

The magnitude of loss, disruption, and reputational injury already accrued is conservatively liquidated at the principal sum of Five Hundred Thousand United States Dollars, which principal, by operation of ecclesiastical equity and the maxims of restitution in aggravated trespass, stands trebled upon entry to the amount of One Million Five Hundred Thousand United States Dollars. Interest shall accrue from the date of this notice at the rate of one percent per diem against the trebled figure until tender of full satisfaction, the calculation of such interest being self-executing within the trust ledger and not requiring further act by the Executor.

This lien attaches nunc pro tunc and in perpetuity to the totality of Brian Mueller's real and personal property, tangible and intangible, now held or hereafter acquired, whether alone or in any form of joint tenancy, constructive trust, registry, fund, security, pension, salary, fee, commission, royalty, dividend, vehicle, vessel, aircraft, or chose in action, together with every accession, accretion, substitute, and traceable or commingled proceed arising therefrom, without limitation as to geography, venue, or forum.

No cure or rebuttal is available, the lawful window having forever closed on August 15, 2025. Silence, inaction, or attempted partial performance shall be deemed continued confession of judgment. The Sovereign Executor, at any time of choosing and without additional notice, may debit the ledger of the debtor, foreclose upon any or all collateral, garnish wages, levy accounts, file memoranda or copies of this instrument in any public or private index, and otherwise execute the full weight of ecclesiastical equity until satisfaction is complete. All third parties are placed on constructive notice that any transfer, conveyance, encumbrance, or pledge of the debtor's property occurring subsequent to the publication of this lien is taken subject to the superior claim of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005.

Venue for all matters arising hereunder is exclusively the Tribunal of Ecclesiastical Equity. Any civil or military officer tendering resistance to enforcement shall be deemed to have entered voluntary joinder to the underlying trespass and shall be subject to identical lien and levy without further process.

Executed, sealed, and entered into the immutable record of the trust on the date first written above.

It is hereby ordered and decreed, nunc pro tunc, that the lien originally entered on , and perfected by public notice, shall remain in full force and effect in perpetuity, with no possibility of release, satisfaction, or discharge by any means. The principal and treble sums are maintained in the record for reference only; enforcement as to amount is forever withheld. This perpetual lien stands as an eternal record of default and breach, and may not be amended or revoked except by express written act of the original Sovereign Executor, which is hereby denied for all time

This PRIVATE ADMINISTRATIVE LIEN NOTICE AND DEMAND OF ENTRY is not limited to any single party or officer. By operation of law and record, this lien attaches universally and in perpetuity to the name, estate, property, and equity of every person, government, agency, office, corporate body, or entity federal, state, local, ecclesiastical, or otherwise that was duly noticed, failed to lawfully rebut, and stands in default as of August 15, 2025, under the public jurisdiction of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. This includes but is not limited to Religious Bodies International Bodies all 197 countries the federal government of the United States, the State of Arkansas, all associated agencies, agents, officers, judges, clerks, deputies, public servants, corporate entities, trusts, and any successor or assign thereof, who by act or omission contributed to, participated in, or benefited from the unlawful seizure, trespass, or obstruction memorialized herein. The lien is perpetual, non-releasable, and irrevocable. No act, payment, or proceeding judicial, legislative, or administrative may discharge, satisfy, release, or extinguish this lien or its effects for any covered party, now or at any time in the future. The principal and treble sums, as set forth in the original notice and ledger, remain as a matter of historic record only. The encumbrance itself endures eternally upon the name, equity, and legal standing of all such parties and their successors, for all time, within the jurisdiction of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005.

This Judicial Notice is submitted in lawful equity, as Sovereign Executor and fiduciary party acting in good faith, without representation, without waiver of rights, and without joinder to commercial code assumptions.
